MEXICO BOILING SEA OF UNREST OVER ELECTION

The Frontier Country is in a Foment Over Wholesale Arrests.

Opponent of Diaz Ordered Deported From Country.

THE SITUATION IS VERY ACUTE.

El Paso, June 20.—The frontier territory of Mexico is in foment today over the wholesale arrests of alleged enemies of the Mexican government. It is reported that Diaz has issued an order for the deportation of Francisco Madero, the liberal presidential candidate, now in the penitentiary at Monterrey. Jails on the Mexican side of the border are filled. It is claimed literature is being distributed from the United States. The Madero followers are said to have been urged to kill government authorities in the different towns, if they are denied the right to vote, Sunday. The situation is acute and troops are held in readiness.

UNCLE SAM ASKED TO PRESERVE NEUTRALITY.

El Paso, June 2.—So serious has the revolutionary situation become, the Mexican government has asked the United States to take steps to preserve neutrality along the border, according to dispatches from Reno, Sonora. Reports state two troops of United States cavalry stationed at Fort Huachuca have been ordered to be ready to march. All women and children along the Mexican side border have fled into the United States. Mexican troops are being stationed at the border towns.

BIG CROWD ATTENDS ST. MARY'S COMMENCEMENT.

At the commencement exercises of St. Mary's academy there was a large audience present this afternoon at the Kentucky theater. The program began at 2:30 o'clock, and the house was filled with friends of the graduates and the school. The program was not limited to the graduates, but the student body participated. A splendid program of musical numbers was presented. It is the close of the fifty-second session of the academy, which is one of the oldest and most successful schools in the city.

LOUISVILLE

Attracts Many on Illinois Central Excursion Today.

Two hundred and fifty passengers left Paducah this morning on the special excursion train to Louisville. The train arrived from Cairo this morning and left the Union station at 9:50 o'clock. The excursionists will arrive in Louisville late this afternoon, and will return to Paducah Thursday night. The excursion is one of the first of the summer, and was well patronized.

The following is a partial list of those who went to Louisville on the excursion: Messrs. A. C. Mitchell, Joe Fisher, H. M. Dalton, A. J. Bamberg, W. E. Crowe, Robert Park, H. C. Stiles, Frank Rinkhoff, Geo. Nelson, R. H. Dorsey, George Roper, Dick Sherer, Phil Kotheimer, Whalen Burke, Will Adams, E. R. Mills, Henry Petter, Oscar Starks, Roy Bonds, F. M. Morrison, J. G. Switzer, Louis Theobald, George C. Bauer, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tyler, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Etter and daughter Edith, Mr. and Mrs. George Bernard, Mesdames W. C. Gray, Bertha Wolf, Jas. Gray, W. H. Seck, A. J. Roth, Jas. Leake, Roy Ballowe and daughter Alice, Jas. C. Wadlington, Frank Mantz, B. J. Billings, Misses Lorette Billings, Mayme Baunham, Ethel Bailey.

Mr. Ed Wheeler, foreman of the tin shop, has gone to Louisville on business.

Fred Fisher has gone to Cincinnati on a visit to friends.

Charles Seamon, a machinist, has gone to San Francisco. Before returning he will attend the Jeffries-Johnson fight.

J. F. Rapp, traveling boiler inspector, of Chicago, was in the city today on business.

Percy Judd and Frank Browne will leave tomorrow for Nashville to attend the arm tournament.

L. E. McCabe, assistant superintendent of the Louisville division, passed through the city this morning.

Congressional Appropriation This Session Largest in History Due to Rivers and the Public Buildings

Rivers and Harbors Bill Carrying Fifty Million Has Been on President's Desk For Some Time Now.

Washington, June 21.—The appropriations by congress at this session are the largest in history, reaching $1,080,000,000, compared to $1,044,000,000 last year. The house was in session till 1 o'clock this morning. The public buildings bill, twenty million dollars, was passed. The increase is due to the rivers and harbors bill and public buildings. The former has been waiting Taft's signature for some time. It carries fifty million dollars excluding the opening of two "pork barrels." There has been a saving over last year of thirty million dollars in the ordinary appropriation.

Two Warships. Washington, June 21.—Conferees on the naval appropriation bill completed their work today, and their report was submitted to the house by Chairman Foss, of the house naval affairs committee. This bill makes provision for the construction of two battleships, to cost, exclusive of armor and armament, not exceeding $6,000,000 each.

POSTAL BILL BALKED. Senate Far From Agreement on the House Measure.

Washington June 21.—Instead of reaching a vote on the acceptance of the house postal savings bank bill, as had been confidently expected, the senate apparently was farther from that consummation when it adjourned today than when it convened.

Late in the day, and following speeches in opposition to the house measure, Senator Bacon offered an amendment striking out the provision regulating the investment of deposits in government bonds and the motion was pending when the senate adjourned.

The principal speech in opposition to the house bill was made by Senator Cummins, who contended that the measure was a radical reversal of the senate bill. He urged Mr. Carter to reconsider his motion to concur and pursue the usual course of asking for a conference. To do otherwise would be to confess failure, he said, and he would not have the senate surrender without a struggle. He voiced especial objection to the provision of the house bill governing the control of the savings bank system by trustees and the withdrawal of deposits.

Mr. Heyburn declared the reserve provision of the bill to be a "through ticket for the money of the country to the banks of New York, without any return."

He said also that under the terms of the bill depositors might demand government bonds, which might render the measure impossible of enforcement.

Washington, June 21.—The railroad law has many sponsors as a result of a semi-official statement. The Taft Administration deserves credit for the most legislation ever passed in one session.

MOTHER'S ATTENTION COULD NOT EARLY NEGLECT.

Henry, the 2-month-old son of Mrs. Odie Thomas, of Shawneetown, Ill., died at the Home of the Friendless at 5 o'clock this morning. Death was the result of neglect in the child's early weeks of life.

Mrs. Thomas deserted the boy here at the New Richmond hotel several weeks ago, but was arrested in Cairo and returned here to face a charge of wilfully deserting an infant. She was held over to the circuit court grand jury for the September term and released on her own recognizance. The child was cared for by the manager and family at the hotel and afterwards placed in the Home of the Friendless. It was in a delicate condition. Mrs. Thomas is in the city and has been with the child at the institution since being released attending the baby.

The funeral will be held at 5 o'clock this afternoon and burial will be in Oak Grove cemetery. The Rev. D. W. Fooks, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, will officiate.

GET STRANDED ON THEIR HONEYMOON

THIEF ROBS NEWLYWEDS; THE MAYOR COMES TO RESCUE.

Trouble began for Mr. and Mrs. Allie Knight early in their married life. This morning the groom had the uncomfortable experience of being broke away from home. Vice-Mayor Ed D. Hannan gave the newlyweds transportation to their home in Glade this morning. They were married a short time ago and spent their honeymoon in the south. At Memphis yesterday en route home some thief stole the suit case, which contained the money as well as the clothing of Knight, from the Union station. Knight had sufficient money to bring him and his bride to Paducah, but was obliged to call for aid to reach home, which is near Benton.

Crop Conditions Are Very Promising Now

McCracken county has been greatly benefited during the past few weeks by the excellent growing weather and its prevalence has caused a promising outlook to crops.

Wheat has been helped wonderfully and the harvest has commenced. All over the county farmers have begun the work of cutting their wheat, and this week it is believed the harvest will be on in every section of the county.

A well known farmer said today that crops were in fine shape and this has been great growing weather. From expressions from other farmers representing the entire county it is evident that all sections have been benefited. The wheat this season is in excellent shape and free from injury to any extent. It is prophesied that the yield will be good. The market for wheat will open here July 1 and the threshing will begin then. Some threshing has been done now, as farmers are anxious to dispose of this year's crop. Many can afford to hold their wheat for some time, demanding better prices.

A good clover crop is looked for this year and cutting has begun. The crop is exceptionally heavy and the yield per acre is large. The drought last year resulted in the killing of much good clover. Corn is in good shape all over the county.

THE WEATHER

The predictions and temperature for the past twenty-four hours will be found at the top of the seventh column on page four.

and oats, as well, are looking fine. The acreage and condition of corn and oats are above the average this year. One farmer predicts one of the largest crops for years this year.

The planting of tobacco was about completed over the county last week and there will be a full crop. It is being worked well and McCracken county will grow one of its largest crops this year. It is said over 98 per cent of the crop is set out, probably even more than that.

Vegetables have been fair this season, but owing to the unreasonable weather they have not reached here in large quantities. The demand for them here, however, is being filled.

"That rain yesterday was the best blessing providence could have given us," said a traveling man this morning at the Union station. "I make the rounds of western Kentucky and never have I seen better prospects for a bumper wheat crop in this end of the state, and in the valley of the Tennessee river. The stalks are so heavy with the wheat grains that they almost break off. The farmers needed a little rain and I know that they are mighty pleased with the shower yesterday afternoon."

Western Kentucky is not regarded as a wheat growing country, but a large number of farmers raise the cereal. The cool weather while a drawback to other farm products, has been ideal for the growing of wheat. It is said that the crop is the best that it has been in years around Paducah.

Dr. G. C. McKinney left this morning for Louisville, where he will spend several days with friends.

DECISION IN THE BALLINGER CASE NEAR AT HAND

Committee Will Meet Saturday to Take a Vote on Verdict.

Seven to Five, in Ballinger's Favor Predicted.

RESULT ANNOUNCED IN FALL.

Washington, June 21.—The Ballinger investigating committee meets Saturday to take a vote on its decision as a result of its probe. It will then adjourn until the end of summer, when the opinion will be given to the public.

The meeting Saturday will be perfunctory. The vote will be seven to five in favor of Ballinger. It is now stated, Graham, of Illinois, will write the minority opinion and Sutherland or Olmstead the majority. Madison, of Kansas, the insurgent, will write a separate opinion against Ballinger.

BOYS PROMISE TO BE GOOD, AND ARE DISMISSED.

Upon their promise to replace the property, Gus Arnold, Jack Wooten and L. G. Overby, three colored boys were fined in juvenile court and the fines set aside this morning by County Judge Alben W. Barkley. Yesterday City Engineer L. A. Washington was taking grades and placed his note book on a mail box at Twelfth and Clay streets. The boys spied the book and began scrapping over the ownership of the volume. In the melee the book was torn to pieces. It was not the value of the book, but the data it contained that worried Mr. Washington.

M'ELYA SEEKS NEW TRIAL

IN CASE WHERE MISS GREGORY WON $5,000 VERDICT.

Affidavits pro and con are being filed in support of the defendant's motion for a new trial in the suit of Miss Gregory, a pretty school teacher, against J. D. McElyra, a prominent farmer of the Maxon Mills vicinity. At the trial of the suit before a jury, Miss Gregory was awarded $5,000 damages because of statements affecting the reputation of the plaintiff alleged to have been made by McElyra to John Bobo. McElyra filed a motion for a new trial, and Judge William Reed has not passed upon it yet.

Last week McElyra filed six affidavits to the effect that John Bobo was not to be believed upon oath, and a general attack upon his veracity. This morning Miss Gregory filed seventeen affidavits from Citizens of Maxon Mills stating that Bobo was a reliable man, and his sworn statements were to be believed. The suit was bitterly fought, and because of the prominence of the parties in the county it attracted much interest. Judge Reed will pass upon the motion for a new trial this week.

Johnson Goes to Reno.

San Francisco, June 21.—Johnson will probably leave here tomorrow for Reno. He is trying to get training quarters. Jeffries is ready to start to work at the final word. Mayor McCarthy issued a statement this morning, saying he was sorry about the orders of Governor Gillette but there was nothing to do now but call the fight off.

BROWNE CASE GOES TO JURY TOMORROW

DEFENSE CLOSING TODAY AND TRIAL NEARS END.

Chicago, June 21.—The defense in the trial of Lee O'Neil Browne rested its case at noon today without calling Lorimer or Lieut. Gov. Oglesby to the stand. Oglesby's appearance here today led to the belief that they would try to show a political plot. The case probably will go to the jury tomorrow. Frederick Bentner, a traveling salesman, testified White told him he was going on a trip and expected to get $1,500.

Captain Farley's Friends Would Have Him Run For Secretary of State at Convention Next Year

He Has Made a Good Record as Treasurer and Friends Think He Should Receive Further Recognition.

The friends of Captain Ed Farley, from all parts of the state, are urging him to stand for the Republican nomination for secretary of state next year, but advise to intimate friends here are that he has not yet determined just what he would do.

Captain Farley has as state treasurer, as is his wont, made a host of friends, to add to the great many he has always had, over the entire state. He has made a fine record during his incumbency of the office, at probably one of the most trying times any state treasurer has had in years, and his friends say he should be rewarded.

Frankfort, and the state in general, is ripe with political gossip just now, and of course the all important topic is, who will be the nominee for governor. It is almost a certainty that west Kentucky will urge the selection of Judge James Breathitt, of Hopkinsville, and Judge E. C. O'Rear's friends are keenly alive to his interests. Announcements from Frankfort are that, while Governor Willson did not relish the way O'Rear handled the night rider cases, he would support his candidacy, should O'Rear be nominated.

Governor Willson has already announced that he would resume his law practice, at the expiration of his term, and do all he can to advance the interests of Kentucky. It has been intimated that the president would find a place for him on the supreme court, but the governor modestly denies any such aspirations.

Auditor Frank James, the prophets say, will stand for auditor again. That is, unless he is nominated for governor. His friends have hopes of a tie-up in the convention, and James being chosen as a compromise.

Thomas B. McGregor, of Marshall county, will be a candidate for attorney general. He has made a good record and has received much encouragement for his candidacy.

JESSE EDMONDSON IS ACCUSED

ROCKFORD, ILL., ALLEGES HE SECURED OVER $15,000 SWAG.

Letters from the chief of police of Rockford, Ill., to Police Sergeant Lige Cross of the Paducah department say that the wholesale jewelry robbery from a pawn shop there two months ago is attributed to Jesse Edmondson, 19 years old, of Paducah, who was placed under arrest in Detroit, Mich., a few weeks ago on suspicion. A diamond necklace valued at $15,000 and other jewelry valued at $1,000 was taken from Edmondson.

Rockford is about 75 miles south of Chicago. When Edmondson was arrested telegrams were sent here in hopes of finding where he took the jewelry from. About two months ago Edmondson was in Paducah, having deserted from the United States army at a western post and left suddenly. He was heard from in Detroit, where he is being held, it is believed. Sergeant Cross went to work on the case immediately and succeeded in tracing the jewelry. A list of the stolen property was sent Sergeant Cross, and the list contained several articles of clothing in addition to the jewelry. Edmondson is well known here, where his family resides.

BURNED AT THE STAKE.

Negro in Texas Confessed That He Assaulted and Murdered Young White Woman.

Rusk, Tex., June 20.—Leonard Johnson, a negro, charged with having killed Maude Redding, a young white woman, near here, was burned at the stake by a mob near the scene of the crime.

Sheriff Norwood and a posse were en route with the negro when they were overpowered by a mob near the home of the murdered woman. The negro stated in his confession that he not only murdered but had assaulted the woman. He was tied to a stake and after the brush had been piled high around him, the torch was applied. The fire was fed until the negro was dead.

ELEVATOR BALKS; THIRTEEN ABOARD

CITY OFFICIALS PROVE A JONAH TO CITY HALL LIFT.

For the first time since its installation, the electric elevator at the city hall balked exactly at 7:35 o'clock last night with a car load numbering 13, including councilmen, aldermen, city officials and reporters.

After the operator, Mr. Frank Dunn, had taken on the unlucky number, he closed the first floor cage and turned on the power. The elevator started, but as it ascended it checked, and Mr. Dunn seeing the danger put on the safety clutch, and brought the lift to a standstill, just a few feet from the second floor landing. As luck would have it, there was a little over a foot's space between the floor of the car and the top of the cage, allowing Mr. Dunn to climb down. Some of the city lawmakers were frightened and had to be pulled through to the first floor, while most of them waited for Mr. Dunn to replace the burned fuse, the cause of the whole trouble. Then the elevator ascended to the third floor.

RENO FINALLY LANDS FIGHT

TOWN WILD WITH JOY OVER CAPTURING THE EVENT.

Ogden, Utah, June 21.—Governor Dickerson, of Nevada, issued a statement here this morning declaring emphatically he wouldn't interfere with the fight.

Reno, Nev., June 21.—Rickard announced today that if Reno pays the $1,000 license and will guarantee to build the arena, it can have the Jeffries-Johnson fight. Governor Dickerson, en route home, said at Boise, Idaho, he had no intention of stopping the fight. He said no laws in the state could stop it. A mass meeting to raise funds was held this morning. Boosters kept the town alive all night with celebrations.

Following the announcement, Reno went fight mad, and the wildest days of gold discoveries were outdone today by the excitement. It is believed Governor Dickerson will issue a formal statement this afternoon. The executive offices are besieged by persons trying to stop the fight.

RAILROADS MAKE SPECIAL RATES FOR MATCH RACE.

Both railroads have granted special rates to the Paducah races for the special day, July 1, when Dr. M. and Reelfoot will race. Secretary Rodney Davis received word today that the special rate had been granted. The tickets will be good to arrive in Paducah June 30 and good to return on July 2. The special rate will draw hundreds of people to the race.

This morning the grand stand was inspected and pronounced in a safe condition. However, the association will make slight repairs and place it in thoroughly good condition in order to accommodate the large number of people, who will attend the races.

LIGHTNING HITS THE M'KINLEY

STROKE DOES ABOUT TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS DAMAGE.

Lightning struck the McKinley school building yesterday afternoon during the hurry, and about $200 damage was done. This morning Fred Hoyer, superintendent of buildings, made an inspection and found that the west chimney was badly damaged and cracked, besides several square feet of slate roofing were torn off. The loss is covered by insurance. Nobody was in the building at the time. The building is the second school to be damaged by lightning this year.

"MOST ELOQUENT MAN IN CONGRESS" SAYS UNCLE JOE

Of the Hon. James E. Watson Who is at Chautauqua Tonight.

A Fair Sized Crowd Attends Monday Night.

TOMORROW WOMAN'S CLUB DAY

In spite of the threatening clouds, a large number enjoyed the musical concert given last night at the Chautauqua by the famous Parland-Newhall company. The company rendered a program which was pronounced one of the finest ever heard in this city. The same company gave another concert this afternoon at 3:45 with an entire change of program.

The Rev. James K. Griffin, the Indian preacher, delivered a strong and interesting lecture and at its close many of the pastors and others in the audience went up and personally commended and thanked him for his magnificent address.

Tonight at 8 o'clock the Hon. James E. Watson, of Indiana, will deliver his lecture entitled, "What Will You Do With It?" This noted speaker will be introduced by the Hon. Charles K. Wheeler, who was an associate in congress of his when Speaker Joseph Cannon says of Watson that he is "the most eloquent man in the house of representatives." It is needless to say that the amphitheater will be crowded to its fullest extent. His speech will be preceded by a short concert, to be given by the Parland-Newhall company, which closes their engagement in Paducah.

Tomorrow has been given over to the Woman's club and through the instrumentality of Miss Virginia Newell, a musical program has been arranged for 3:45 and another at 7:45, in which 40 well trained persons will take part. The reputation of this young teacher in arranging entertainments is an assurance in advance that these entertainments will be highly enjoyed and well attended.

Tomorrow evening between the hours of 5:30 and 8 o'clock the ladies will serve lunch and the public in general is requested to patronize this feature of the program.

Shooting Follows Quarrel.

Aberdeen, S. D., June 21.—In a quarrel over rent, Nick Discol shot Charles Bosley, a butcher, in the right breast, and E. M. Birdsey, a meat cutter in the butcher shop, shot Joe Discol, a brother of Nick, behind the right ear. Nick fled but Birdsey jumped on a horse and pursued him, capturing him and turning him over to the police.

LONE OAK

HAS INTERESTING CHILDREN'S DAY SERVICE SUNDAY.

The children's musical given by the Lone Oak Methodist Sunday school last Sunday was a decided success. There was one addition to the church and two infants baptized. Rev. E. R. Naylor preached to a good congregation at the evening hour.

The Woman's Home Missionary society met with Mrs. A. J. Elliott yesterday afternoon.

The Massac Methodist Sunday school enjoyed an outing on Metropolis lake last Saturday, and all reported a fine time. Last Sunday afternoon they had their children's services. The pastor preached specially to the children, and took the offering.

Dr. John S. Davis, formerly of Lovelaceville, has located with his family at Lone Oak. He has rented Prof. J. S. Ragdale's house until he can build. Prof. Ragdale has gone away to attend the summer school at the University of Indiana. Mr. Orvell Crows and Miss Ivie Newman, both of Massac, were married last Saturday afternoon at the Lone Oak Methodist parsonage. W. J. Naylor officiated.

FUN IN VAUDEVILLE—BY AL M. FOREMAN

"All the World's a Stage, and all Players Are Actors—Nil."—Shakespeare.

There were no comedians at either vaudeville house on this week's opening. Fun is at a premium, and if you wish to laugh you will have to pinch yourself.

At the Star, the Musical Tolans are prize features. Their opening piece, Wedding Bells, played on bells, was an inspiration to the audience. The violin solo, with muffled xilophone accompaniment, furnished a concord of sweet, harmonious sounds and were appealing.

The imitation of a departing train was an innovation. The stage was darkened; a red light placed behind the head of a snare drum produced the effect of a headlight of a locomotive. The work of the drummer, supplemented by the ringing of a bell and the accented toot, toot, completed the illusion, and would have fooled a blind person.

One of the Tolans related an instance where a young, ambitious lady reporter got in bad with the other critics, in attempting to criticize their musical repertoire, at Houston, Tex. It seems the young lady was better acquainted with the pharmacopoeia of medical terms than she was with her Hoyle on musical terms; and allegro, andante and tempo fugue were strangers to the gray matter of this peroxide blonde.

She said their tempo was bad, and that where the music should have been erosote, it was lymphatic; and that in counterpoint, they abrogated the spirit of menthol for epicacuan, rag time, aux vomica and basso profundo. She claimed that their tempo frument was too farrore for a cadenza played in B sharp, and should have been played more cascara esgratta.

The Tolans visited a musical professor to learn the meaning of these new musical terms, for they thought if they were that good they wanted more money.

Games Today and Tomorrow.
Hopkinsville at Paducah.

Clarksville at Vincennes. Rain beat the Indians out of a victory yesterday afternoon, when the Indians went after the poor Hoppers right in the first inning. It was the start of a game that had every promise of being an Indian victory. The rain descended in sheets, while the lightning played around the park so that after the shower the diamond resembled a pond, instead of a place to play the national game.

Harris was in the box for Paducah, and he was in rare form, retiring the Hoppers without any threats of danger. The Indians biffed out one run in the first inning, and J. Pluvius took pity on the visitors and turned on the water.

Paducah got her score in the first. Angermeyer was first up and went out, Crimmins to Lynch. Vonadore did no better and went out, Williams to Lynch. Lockhart was safe at first, on a low throw to first by Crimmins. He pilfered second, while Block hit one to Crimmins that the little third baseman could not handle, and Lockhart traveled over the home pan. Block was caught between first and second bases.

Yon was in the box for the Hopkinsville team and the little southpaw held the Indians safe in the second inning.

Close Game at Vincennes.

Vincennes, Ind., June 21.—Priest held Vincennes safe today and the Clarksville team walked off the field the victors of the fray by the score of 1 to 0. Blue, the catcher injured at Paducah, was able to be in the game, and succeeded in winning the game by rapping out a timely single. Johnson was in the box for Vincennes, Clarksville made the only score of the game when Thompson was hit. Heck sacrificed him to second. He was safe at third when Jantzen dropped the throw from Fish. When Blue hit to center field Thompson scored.

KITTY LEAGUE IS TOO SLOW FOR 'EM.

Not Much Chance of Owensboro Entering.

Manager Ling, of the Owensboro Baseball club, in answer to the many questions that are being asked him concerning the possibility of his entering his team in the Kitty League, gives out the same statement to all and says that as far as he can see, there is not the slightest probability of his team entering the league, says the Owensboro Messenger.

The attempt of the Owensboro team of 1905 to keep in the league was unsuccessful, even though at the time the team went to pieces, it was in first place. Manager Ling feels that the Owensboro fans are being given good games and that his plans and arrangements are working out to his satisfaction so that he can see no advantage to be gained by entering a league that has never been in a too favorable condition when viewed from a financial standpoint.

The baseball enthusiasts express their confidence in the ability of the Owensboro team to land first place in the Kitty league, should the team enter the league, but from the statements of the manager, there is not the remotest possibility of Ling entering the league. Henderson has a Kitty league team, but cannot enter until another town joins.

Some Game.

Danville, O., June 21.—What is said to be one of the longest and most interesting games of baseball was played Saturday between Danville and Amity. The game lasted for more than four hours. At the end of the twenty-second inning it was called on account of darkness, with the score standing 6 and 6. All the runs were made in the fore part of the game and for 18 innings neither side scored. Only one error was made. Race, for Danville, struck out 31 men, and Part struck out 28. Both pitchers lasted the entire game and were as strong as at the beginning.

DR. PAYNE'S REMOVAL LOSS TO KY.

SERVICE AND INFLUENCE AT NORMAL SCHOOL WIDELY RECOGNIZED.

Richmond, Ky., June 21.—The resignation of Dr. George Payne as head of the training department of the Eastern Kentucky State Normal school, to take effect at the close of the present school year, is causing comment and regret in the large student body of the institution, and among the friends of education throughout central and Eastern Kentucky to accept the chair of psychology and education in the Teachers' college of St. Louis, is regarded by school people as a distinct loss to the educational interests of the state, especially at this critical period of the educational reformation in the school system.

The well-rounded career and the strong cultured personality of Dr. Payne as an educator, though he is yet a young man, make him a splendid example of what a Kentucky boy even under adverse conditions, can do for himself and his people by pluck and perseverance and plenty of hard work.

After receiving the training afforded by the country schools of his native county, Barren, Dr. Payne, through his own efforts attended Kentucky Wesleyan college, at Winchester, and later the National Normal university at Lebanon, O., where he took the degree of Bachelor of Arts, at the same time studying the normal school system. Going then to the University of Chicago, he took the same degree and continued his studies one year in the Graduate School in Education. Sociology and History, receiving an honor scholarship for meritorious work.

In 1907, he resigned the principalship of the Paducah High school and declined the superintendency of the Paducah city schools in order to continue his studies abroad and to make a study of the German school system. After two years of study in the universities of Paris, Bonn and Berlin, he received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy, having passed the examination with the honor cum laude and having received the honor laudabilem upon his thesis, "Die Einführung des Chinesenarbeit in Suedafrika."

During his work as student and teacher, Dr. Payne has familiarized himself with practically every phase of school work and particularly those having a bearing upon Kentucky's school system. His first work as teacher was in the country schools of Barren county, then as principal of the Burkesville public school and, later, as head of the normal department of the Alexander school at the same place.

Dixon, Ill., he was head of the department of psychology and director of the Practice school. While principal of the Paducah High school, he was a member of the commission appointed to locate the two State Normal schools, and before he left for Europe, was appointed by Governor Beckham to make a special study of the German school system and report to the Kentucky department of education of Kentucky. The report was published last year and received highly favorable criticism from educators, magazines and newspapers in this and other countries. His other published works are "The Relation of the Grammar Grades to the High School" and "Die Einführung des Chinesenarbeit in Suedafrika," the latter in German. He now has ready for the press, "A Chinese Labor Experiment" and "The Need of Vocational Training in Kentucky."

HINTS FOR PROSPECTIVE BUILDERS

This is a great era of home-building in Paducah. Everybody seems to be realizing that the best home is a home they own and have built as they want it. For the benefit of our readers who are considering building and are still undecided as to the style or price of home to build, we are, each week on this page, showing original, attractive and practical illustrations of modern moderate priced houses that will offer helpful suggestions and give a fairly accurate idea of what it will cost to build.

This Gambrel Roof Colonial Home for $2,500

The design for today, though for a home of modest size, presents an attractive, imposing appearance equal to many houses of greater size. This is occasioned by the fact that the plan, instead of running to depth, as is the usual plan, has its greatest proportion in width. As shown, this home is 44 feet wide and only 22½ feet deep. The above estimate is based on frame construction and includes bath, furnace and plumbing. Height of stories: First, 9 feet; second, 8 feet 6 inches.

The plan is for seven rooms and bath, not counting the reception hall, which could in itself be considered a fair-sized room.

This plan is especially pleasing because of its convenient arrangement throughout; for instance, in the first floor the well placed pantry connecting dining room and kitchen, the large, homey, well-lighted living-room, etc. The second floor sitting room will appeal to the woman. Note the abundance of closets.

Complete plans and specifications, in duplicate, for building this house may be secured from this office for $25.00. For alterations making additions or reversing plans a slight charge will be made, dependent as to the amount of extra work involved.

Daily Thought.

In the field of destiny we reap as we have sown.—Drummond.

Just wait now until we hear what those senators and representatives from the western states have to say about the conservation bill, before congress now. Senator Borah, of Idaho, yesterday said the people in those states could attend to their local questions, could the conservation measure will affect, better than any bureau in Washington. Continuing he said: "The policy which withholds agricultural land from production, hinders industrial life, and forces the citizen into the city or foreign lands; that it is shortsighted, and a blunder that such legislation is no worse than a crime." He denounced the system of making homesteaders work seven or eight years to get land. The people of the east are ignorant of conditions in the west, and the many articles they have been reading in the muck raking magazines have only served to make them more so.

CUT THE WEEDS AT ONCE.

The health department is already receiving complaints about the high weeds to be found on many of the vacant lots in the city, and it is time to call the attention of the people to the fact that there is a city ordinance making it a fine of not less than five dollars if weeds are not removed from all property. The health board announces that it will certainly prosecute every violation of the ordinances this summer. This is but right. If a person has not enough regard for the welfare of his neighbors to prompt him to take those precautions which make for sanitary conditions, he should be prosecuted, and compelled to do so.

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY.

St. Mary's academy is today bringing to a close its fifty-second school session, with four graduates. Paducah owes much to this good institution, and is proud of the record it has achieved. Beginning in the humblest of the ways, it has grown slowly, surely, magnificently, until today it is one of the best schools in the state, with buildings and equipments of which any community should be proud. When asked, a few weeks since, how the order had financed its school here so successfully, the mother superior modestly replied that she did not know how it had been accomplished, that "it was just done." It is the intention to extend the courses of study, to make the schools still better. In the light of past results, we know it will be attained, too.

THE EDITORIAL ARSENAL.

The Burkesville (Ky.) Banner is now ready for business. The editor having been threatened, he announces that he has his "office stocked with a rifle and a twelve gauge double barrel shotgun, and I have been requested by the sheriff to arm myself with an automatic revolver." The Fourth at Burkesville will probably be neither safe nor sane.—Chicago Tribune.

Entire love is a worship, and cannot be angry.—Leigh Hunt.

STATE PRESS.

Home, Sweet Home.

For many years we were afflicted with what our German friends term "der Wanderlust." We have seen all there is, and some that isn't. We have reveled in the sweets and drunk deeply of the bitter. Our peregrinations to the southward have extended to the Southern Cross. We have gone not so far northward as Peary, perhaps, but we know that we have gotten as close to the pole as our lamented Captain Cook, and with less pemmican cached. On the east we have proceeded as far as the mouth of Sandy and are entirely familiar with the location of Mills Point to the westward. We would be dull and obtuse, indeed, after having been associated with the best newspaper men of the country and after having worked in the best newspaper offices, if we had not absorbed practical plans and ideas, which, if we are capable of putting them to use, should produce a country newspaper satisfying to its patrons and profitable to its proprietors. And we would be exceedingly narrow between the eyes, after butting the world for years and bearing "the slings and arrows of outrageous fortune," if we had not now a ripper judgment, a broader mind, a fuller appreciation and understanding of the courtesies and amenities due between men and men. Mixing with different kinds of people in different places eradicates provincialism and enlarges the landscape. The world is big.

But notwithstanding all this, we have never traveled so far as not to be impressed and thrilled with the inspiring strains of "Home, Sweet Home."

Home! Upon that word there drops the sunshine of boyhood, the shadow of tender sorrows and the reflection of ten thousand fond memories. Home! When we see that word in print it seems to rise and sparkle and leap and thrill and whisper and chant and pray and weep. It glitters like a shield. It twinkles like a star. It springs up like a fountain. It thrills like a song. It leaps like a flame. It glows like a sunset at the Golden Gate. And if some lexicographer, urged upon by a spirit from beneath, should seek to cast that word from the language, the children would come forth and hide it under garlands of wild flowers, and the wealthy would cover it with their diamonds and pearls. The humble cotter would bury it beneath his hearthstone—kings would hide it under their crowns; after Herod had hunted its life from Bethlehem to Egypt, and utterly given up the search, some bright, warm day it would flash from among the gems, breathe from among the coronets, and the world would read it bright and fair, beautiful and resonant as before. "Home, Sweet Home."—John Melan, in Calloway Gazette.

ART OF BULL FIGHTING MASTERED BY HARVARD GRADUATE

Glory of Gore Attend the Only American Matador—
(By Frances Howard)

With the passing of Harper B. Lee, the immortal fell upon America's only bull-fighter and old Harvard's most spectacular gladiator. Lee was the pride of Harvard in 1897 and his coolness, courage, strength and agility won glory and honors for the red.

His profession of civil engineering called him to Mexico, the dashing Harvard hero fell captive to a pair of languorous dark eyes and led to the altar a little senorita, a daughter of an old and honored Spanish family.

To increase his income and because he longed to match his daring, police and strength against the prowess of the Mexican athlete, he became a bull-fighter. To his delight and their cheering he easily surpassed them and the spectators were quick to observe and acclaim his skill. He now devoted his entire attention to the sport and in 1905 became a matador, the zenith of his possibilities. He did not win his spurs unchallenged, however, but his associates soon learned that to betray or anger him was a dangerous pastime. In October, 1909, he was reported dying from injuries inflicted by a bull, but miraculously recovered. On May 8, 1910, he was again gored by a bull and with his life blood gushing from his wounds, killed the bull with a magnificent stroke, walked to the ring barrier and fell unconscious.

Close your eyes for a moment, worthy reader, and imagine yourself magically transported to a mountain-girt table-land in the region of the tropics, and awaken in the Old Mexican capital, the city of the Aztecs, the throne of the Montezumas, the debatable empire of Maximilian.

It is Sunday, a festive day, and the hands of the clock point to 3 p. m. Suddenly, a tram-car, clanging its bell, rattles down the street. A shabby carry-all rolls past and from every street and avenue pour throngs of chattering, gaily dressed people, whose singing, laughter and cries mingle with the bells of the omnibuses, the crack of the drivers' whips, the clatter of horses' hoofs and the rumble of the tram-cars. The accumulative tide of humanity turns, as one person, into the broad avenue of the Plaza de Toros, the great amphitheater or circus where the national sport of bull-fighting is held.

Every true American disapproves this pastime, abhors it as a revolting spectacle, a scene of useless carnage, a slaughter of the innocents, but the excitement of the multitude is infectious, the clear, rare air intoxicating and without the thought of resistance, you join the gala crowd. The amphitheater proves to be a plain, substantial, roofless enclosure, elliptical in form. The ring, a miniature Sahara, occupies the center; encircling it is a barrier as high as a man's shoulders. Outside the barrier a board-walk extends entirely around the arena, and is in turn encompassed by another barrier, beyond which rise tier upon tier of seats. The boxes occupy the highest planes and are gaily decorated, as are the barriers, with bunting in the national colors, red, blue and green.

With every moment the joy of the crowd increases. Men of affairs abandon themselves to the festivity of the scene with the thoughtlessness of children. Women blithely felicitate their neighbors upon the joy of being present; youths play pranks to the delight of the maidens and children.

The distant cathedral chimes ring 4 o'clock and all eyes are turned upon one of the four entrances to the arena which subdivide the barriers into quarters. Above the gate reserved for the bulls sits the Tribune who directs the sport, a mighty man. He gives a signal; there is a flourish of trumpets and through the opposite gate winds a procession, medieval in its trappings, brilliancy and armature. About a dozen chulos station themselves at intervals about the ring. Several horsemen, the picadors, spur their blindfolded, gaily caparisoned nags to various positions near the barrier. The picadors are encased in mail over which they wear velvet coats and leather trousers and each bears a long lance. The multitude roars with delight, buzzes, shouts, whistles, cat-calls. Another trumpet signal and enter the bull. He is a moderately sized, dark chestnut animal, with spreading horns and a powerful neck. Good! he will be a bueno toro for a fight. His size augurs speed and activity. His color denotes a fierce and passionate temper and his powerful horns are sharp as a two-edged sword.

The chulo, a gallant figure in gorgeous jacket, knee breeches and silk stockings, advances and waves a brilliant pink mantle to attract the bull's attention. The bull makes a plunge, the chulo dexterously sidesteps and the bull finds himself confronted by a picador. He lowers his head, charges and feels the steel of the picador's lance plunging along his ribs. The picador must evade him, as does the chulo, but must hold off the attack by the strength of his spear and the steadiness of his good right arm. Again the chulo flirts his cloak or muleta in the eyes of the maddened bull which deers the picador to destroy the tormenting thing and again his attack is futile. He gives chase to the chulo who darts behind a picador and the long sharp horns of the infuriated animal plough a deep, cruel gash in the abdomen of the helpless horse whose entrails fall out, to the delight of the audience. Again a chulo intervenes, flaps his cloak, darts hither and thither, artfully leading the bull to meet the lances of the picadors and blinding him by his swirling muleta. The chase becomes fast and furious; the bull is bleeding from a score of wounds, is wild with rage and pain and deals death and destruction with his horns. Chulos are chased and barely escape with their lives; picadors are unseated and forced to vault the barrier to elude his vengeance; horses are lifted bodily on his horns, are gored, mutilated, ruthlessly butchered. You raise your eyes for a moment from the steaming shambles, the suffocating dust-clouds, the turmoil of conflict and with astonishment gaze up into a clear, serene blue heaven pierced by the airy tower of the Great Cathedral and melting into the blue of the mountain tops in the distance, floating in an atmosphere as pure and crystalline as on creation's first morn.

The bull now seems to realize the hopelessness of waging such heated warfare against the muleta, the baffling, unresisting, enfolding, blinding thing whose softness and brilliancy torture his very heart, and which he considers the chief cause of his plight. He retreats, hesitates, and though unconquered, appears weary of the fray.

This is the signal for Act II. of the drama. A trumpet signal calls another troupe of participants.

These are the banderilleros, whose duty it is to rekindle the fury of the sulken animal. The banderillero is light, slender, nimble of foot and deft of hand. Each carries a pair of banderillas, or short barbed darts, bedecked with gaudy tissue-paper streamers. Holding a banderilla in each hand, he must plant them simultaneously from a perilous proximity and in the twinkling of an eye, if he would save his life. The coveted spot of magnificent achievement is the shoulder, on either side the spinal column, and can be reached only at the moment when the bull has lowered his head to toss his foe. The sting of the darts completes the misery of the unfortunate bull and goads him to frenzy. He rushes wildly about, charges any thing in sight and sends up clouds of dust from his flying hoofs, while the agile banderilleros confine their persecutions. One runs alongside him and deftly imbeds a pair of stinging spears. Another seizes his tail and mercilessly twists it. Another betwixts the most unkindest cut of all, the final degradation, the insult maximum, the salto de la garrocha. The garrocha is a long lance which the banderillero implants in the ground beneath the very nose of the charging bull. Using it as a pole he vaults nimbly over the bull and with lightning speed removes the garrocha before the bull can strike it.

When the bull tires of pursuing this class of tormentors who sting and get away with the facility of a mosquito, the time for the last grand act has arrived, the crowning joy of an afternoon's delight. With a fanfare of trumpets the matador enters. He is the bright particular star in the galaxy of bull-fighters; he is the grand master of the art of bull-slaying, the darling of the populace. He is gay, handsome and self-confident. He is resplendent in cherry velvet and gold-braided braids; he wears the time-honored flat, velvet hat of the torero, and his hair is tied in a queue. In one hand he carries a cherry-red cloak, in the other a flashing rapier. He advances amid deafening cheers and bows low, declaiming poetically of his intention to slay the bull for the honor of his country, race, or, perhaps, he dedicates his act to some wealthy patron who will be sure to respond to the compliment in a substantial manner. The spectators become delirious with joy. They cheer and salute. They hail him with enjoining names. "Come, little slayer of bulls," call the men. "Buena espada," laugh the women, to their soft, silken Spanish.

The bull is now at bay, sullen, vengeful, dangerous. The matador confronts him, spreads his mantle gracefully, drags it insignificantly, ways it tantalizingly before the glowing eyes. Suddenly the huge head is lowered and a dark bulk rushes forward. The matador gives a clean thrust, plucks his steel away, and eludes the attack, while the hot blood spurts from the wound. The sport continues. Again the matador spreads his muleta. Again the bull answers the challenge. Suddenly the blue steel strikes home, touches a vital spot, the junction of the neck and spinal column, and the bull sinks slowly to the ground, struggles to rise again with the fiery spirit of a dying gladiator, sways and falls heavily. The matador bows profoundly. Nunc plaudite! He leaps the barrier and promenades in full view of his worshippers. The ecstasy of the audience manifests itself in divers ways. Men and boys throw their hats into the ring, toss cigars, coin; women throw flowers, knots of ribbon, trinkets; from the boxes falls a shower of coin, purses, jewels, medals and finally the Tribune or

Sample Helps Frail Women

So many women are dragging out weary lives just because their digestive organs are weak. The result is poor circulation, nervousness and the verge of invalidism. It is often very unnecessary and the woman's own fault.

The first thing to do is to look to the welfare of your bowels. There the trouble usually lies. All physicians know that a large percentage of women are habitually constipated, and from this result indigestion, piles, weakness, etc. But there is no use taking "female remedies" and things of that kind until you have started your bowels to moving. You will find that when the bowels move regularly once or twice a day all your petty ills will disappear. Take a good, mild laxative tonic like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for awhile and you will find yourself rapidly getting better and stronger, your bowels will regulate themselves and work at stated times, and then your headaches and dizziness will disappear. Don't take strong cathartic pills or salts, but just such a mild and pleasant-tasting remedy as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

You can obtain a bottle of your druggist for fifty cents or one dollar, and either size may be enough to permanently cure you. Thousands of women keep it regularly in the house and will no longer be without it, as it cures them and can be used with safety by every member of the family. Down to the youngest child, but if you have never used it take the advice of Mrs. Earl S. Cox, 409 Twenty-fifth street, Moline, Ill., and send to Dr. Caldwell for a free trial bottle, as they did, and learn for yourself what it will do in your own case. That it will cure you, as it did them, there is no doubt.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 97 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

master of ceremonies bestows upon him his professional reward, a purse containing a goodly sum. In the meantime attendants are clearing the arena; the slaughtered bull and dead horses are dragged out by teams of mules and another bull led out to contribute to the sport of the day.

The Spanish matador is the idol of his countrymen; the most renowned of the notables of old Madrid, the man whom the king delighted to honor. He is showered with gifts, he is limned by artists, he is heralded in song and story. Mazantini, the flower of Spain, is an educated man. He receives a princely income, is presented with gold medals and crowns, is carried from the Plaza de toro on men's shoulders, and sonnets and poems are addressed to him. Ponciano Diaz, a Mexican matador, is the glorified hero who made famous the underhand thrust and had no equal in the skill of placing a banderilla.

And Harper B. Lee is the peer of these, a member of the elect. He goes forth to the fray with a singing heart; his blood dancing, every muscle tenses, every nerve tingling. On every side of the vast amphitheater his name is praised, his plaudits swell. He spreads his blood-red cloak—it is his own beloved color, the royal red of old Harvard. The bull plunges; his rapier describes a blue arc; a stream of red blood answers. He draws a quick breath of fierce joy as cries of "Bravo!" "Buena Matador," ring in his ears. Ah, this life, the joyous life of the gay torero; to be rich without the burden or responsibilities of wealth; a king without the cares and perplexities of state; a potentate without a disloyal subject; the adored of dames without the embarrassment of a duel. A free life and a glorious one, its very danger its sweetest essence; and when death comes he will sigh out his last breath to the same sweet music of his glory and the showering tears of the softer sex—and there is always the chance of victory in the fray.

Again the bull charges; he thrusts and springs aside, his foot slips in a little pool of warm red blood, he feels an appalling, sickening pain in his side, is conscious of being lifted bodily, of hurtling through space—and the great darkness falls on the glorious matador.

A NEW RAY OF HOPE, EH?

JOHN S. RAY ASSUMES MANAGEMENT OF HOPTOWN TEAM.

Back to his old love—the Kitty league—John S. Ray returned today as manager of the Hopkinsville baseball team, succeeding Manager Anderson. Ray took charge of the Hoppers this afternoon, and in the next few weeks expects to lift the team from the cellar to the top, and give any team a hard fight for the rag. Ray said he was glad to get back to the Kitty, and the expression on his face emphasized that fact.

Manager Anderson, who in addition to his duties as manager, played second base, saw the difficulty in having a top-notch team, and resigned his position. The Hopkinsville officials got busy at once and secured Ray as the manager of the squad. He arrived in Paducah early this morning and took charge of the team. While he will not play, Ray has a head full of inside baseball, and he will direct his team from the side lines.

Johnny Ray is well known to the Paducah fans, as in 1904 he gave Paducah a pennant winner in the old Kitty, and in 1905 managed the Princeton, Ind., team. When the Kitty league disbanded, Ray returned to his home in New Albany, Ind. For two years he has not been interested actively in baseball, but when the call was received from the Kitty, Ray could not resist, and he trotted to Paducah to take charge of the Hoppers.

"Yes I am glad to get back to the Kitty league," said Ray this morning. "I like the circuit and the fans down here. I hardly know what my plans will be except to give Hopkinsville a winning team if possible. I have not seen the players work out, and have not thought of any changes this early."

Manager Ray announced that he would send Von, the little south-paw who started the game yesterday, to the firing line this afternoon. Manager Angermeyer will pin his hope on Harris, who worked two innings in fine style yesterday. Cox will be out of the game for several days, owing to a strain and Block or Crain will cover first sack. Tidwell will be used at short, while Williams will be back in the game by tomorrow.

Don't overlook your city taxes and have to pay the penalty. Better see after this today.

For Destroying City Property.

Elza Overby, 16; Jack Wootan, 15, and Gus Arnold, 13, all colored, were arrested and turned over to County Judge Alben Barkley Monday afternoon to be tried in juvenile court on a charge of destroying property of the city. While City Engineer L. A. Washington was surveying for Sidewalks Saturday afternoon he left a valuable book containing drawings and figures on a mail box at Twelfth and Clay streets. Jack Wootan saw it and began looking through it. Arnold tried to take it away from Wootan and all three began fighting, resulting in the destruction of the book. The city engineer recovered a few pages from the street.

Police Court.

In order that more witnesses may be summoned the robbery case against Harry Williams, Bob Grimmer and Claud Mason was continued until Thursday morning in Rowlandtown Sunday night and demanded all of his money. He gave them all he had—10 cents. Then Sparks is alleged to have hit Williams, inflicting a painful wound over the left ear. Monday, Sparks swore out a warrant against the three, and they were arrested last night by Police Sergeant Lige Cross and Patrolmen Kirk and McNeill. Williams has sworn out a warrant against Sparks, charging him with breach of the peace.

Ed Wood, charged with shooting Will Taylor two weeks ago with intent to kill, waived an examination this morning and was held over to the circuit court grand jury and his bond fixed at $300. Taylor was shot in the right eye, but is recovering. Wood was fined $5 in addition for breach of the peace in acting in a disorderly way after the shooting occurred.

Other cases this morning were: Breach of peace—John Johnson, fined $5; Nettie Long and Bob

In Circuit Court.

Tomorrow morning Circuit Judge William Reed announced that he would give his decision in the suit of John B. Terrell vs. the Prussian National Insurance company. The suit has occupied two days in the court, and a large amount of evidence was offered. The suit is filed because of the refusal of the company to pay the loss by fire of the Terrell Distillery company, when fire broke out in the bottling department last year. Orders made were:

Amanda Borders vs. J. H. Borders; defendant filed joint answer.

Ethel Upton vs. Thomas Upton; plaintiff granted a divorce and restored to her maiden name, Ethel Bailey.

A. C. Mitchell, administrator, vs. Sarah BuBus; report of sale by master-commissioner filed.

G. W. Katterjohn vs. Scott Overton; agreed order filed.

J. F. Crafton vs. Phoebe Rigglesberger; motion for rule and judgment filed.

In County Court.

TRACK IS IN FINE CONDITION FOR THE RACES.

Preparations are being made for the special race at the West End race track between Reelfoot and Dr. M. The big grand stand is being re-enforced and a large force of carpenters are at work daily. The race track is being worked every day, and those who have worked out horses on the track say it is in fine condition.

For the accommodation of the thousands of people, who are coming here for the race, the railroads and steamboats have made special reduced rates, trip rates. The rates will go on June 30 and be good on July 2. Then these rates will be followed by special rates on July 4 and 5, when the regular July meet will be held. Some fast horses will be here on both occasions.

This afternoon Dr. M. and Reelfoot were taken around the track in some good time. The track was not in condition for work this morning on account of the heavy rain yesterday.

The board of public works will meet in regular session tonight at 7 o'clock. A short session is anticipated, as there will not be any important business before the members.

Progressive Dinner for House Guests.

Quite a novel entertainment was the progressive dinner given last evening by the Misses Margaret Carnegie, Sadie Smith, Mary B. Jennings, Elizabeth and Ellen Boswell, complimentary to the house guests of Miss Helen Van Meter.

At the home of Miss Carnegie, where the first course was served the girls met at 6 o'clock. The dining table was prettily decorated in lavender sweet peas and asparagus fern. In the center of the table was a big vase of sweet peas and around it were gracefully strewn the sweet peas, intermingled with the fern. The place cards were white with a spray of sweet peas tied with ribbon at the top.

From Miss Carnegie's they went to Miss Sadie Smith's for the dinner course. The decorations used for this course were the field daisies, artistically arranged and tied about with bows of white tulle. The pretty place cards were white card board on which was a spray of daisies done in water colors.

The next and salad course was served at the country home of Miss Mary B. Jennings on the large porch, pretty in the arrangement of its furniture and hanging baskets and boxes of flowers.

At the home of the Misses Boswell a delicious cooling ice was served on the lawn and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Those present were: Misses Klein, Hoopeson, Ill.; Jessie May Lillard, of Lawrenceburg; Emma Mountjoy, of Warsaw; Dorothy Bryant, of Goldfield, Nev.; Elizabeth Boswell, Ellen Boswell, Helen Van Meter, Mary B. Jennings, Sadie Smith, Margaret Carnegie; Messrs. Jim McGinnis, Will Rudy, Warren Sights, Gus Elliott, Roscoe Reed, Robert Fisher, Will Bell.

S.S.S. NATURE'S TONIC

Any system that needs a tonic needs also a blood purifier, for it is the weakened, impure condition of the circulation that is responsible for the run-down state of health.

The supreme office and duty of the blood is to furnish nourishment to every portion of the body. The circulatory system, magnificent and wonderful in its construction, supplies the means for the distribution of systemic nutriment to every muscle, nerve, bone, gland, sinew and tissue of the body; and just as long as the blood remains pure and rich each of these members are healthy, strong and normal.

We have only to recognize the importance of pure blood in preserving health, to realize the danger of a weakened circulation. The use of a proper tonic when the system is depleted and run-down will often prevent the development of some serious sickness, because weak systems cannot resist disease, while healthy systems are able to ward it off.

Deficient blood nutriment is usually manifested in a general bodily weakness, a tired, worn-out feeling, fickle appetite, poor digestion, etc. Sleep does not sufficiently refresh the body, and the languid feeling frequently makes the ordinary duties of life burdensome.

"TONIC OF THE HIGHEST ORDER."
S. S. S. is all you claim for it to enrich and renovate the blood and to build up the general health. My blood was weak and impure, and I was troubled with a general letting down of the system. The symptoms are too well known for me to detail. It is only necessary for me to state that under the fine tonic and blood purifying effects of S. S. S. my appetite improved, I increased in strength and weight and my blood was restored to its normal, healthy condition.

S. S. S. is Nature's Tonic. It is made entirely of botanical products gathered directly from the heart of Nature's forests. It does not contain a particle of strong, harmful mineral in any form, but is a scientific composition of extracts and juices from herbs, roots and barks. S. S. S. is the greatest of all tonics, because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers. It is not a nerve stimulant, but a medicine that steadily builds up every portion of the system by cleansing and enriching the blood, and in this way supplying an increased amount of nourishment and strength to every portion of the body. S. S. S. rids the system of that tired, worn-out feeling, quiets the over-strained nerves, makes sleep refreshing, corrects any stomach disturbance, promotes good digestion and adds vigor and vim to the entire system.

BURGLAR REMOVES SHOES; THEN VICTIM'S POCKETS.
Removing his shoes at the front porch in Japanese style, an up-to-date and noiseless operating burglar walked in the front door at the residence of Harry White, 1014 Ohio street, some time last night while the family slept soundly. Quietly the burglar worked and he was careful and lucky to not tread on any squeaking floor planks. His only performance was to lift Mr. White's trousers from a chair and leave the house as quietly as he entered. Several dollars in a dresser drawer were not touched.

After the burglar made his exit he replaced his shoes and walked off, at the same time going through the pockets of the trousers. He found a half dollar, a bunch of keys and a valuable silver watch. As he passed the alley between Ninth and Tenth streets he gave up the trousers, which were found this morning by Mr. White. The police are working on a clue.

HERRICK REFRIGERATOR

Some other dealers will show you a refrigerator in which the partition between the food chamber and the ice chamber is constructed like a shutter. Now when you see this, just bear in mind our warning: Unless this partition is as tight as it can possibly be made, except at top and bottom, you are certain to have trouble when the ice is partially melted, for the air will rise no higher than the top of the ice; hence in this "shutter" style you have a dead air space which will cause food on the top shelves to mould and become tainted.

The Herrick

is built as a refrigerator should be. Science and experience have enabled us to produce a food container which is well nigh perfect. If you need a refrigerator this season, take advantage of our THIRTY DAYS FREE TRIAL offer; it will demonstrate the superlative merits of The Herrick better than anything we could tell you in words.

The Herrick has an ingenious Water Cooler arrangement which you will like. The water is placed in a tank outside the refrigerator and circulates through a pure cooler tin coil on which the ice rests. It gets ice cold without coming in contact with the ice. This is true ice economy, as you never have to hack and chip at your ice supply and the water never becomes tainted with ammonia, etc.

DID THEY FIND BURIED TREASURE?

TWO MEN EXCAVATE HOLE, SET FOLKS TO GUESSING.

The strange appearance of two old tramps in the woods near Ninth and Bachman streets last Friday and the results of their visit, discovered the following day, has set gossiping tongues wagging and the formation of many theories.

Whether the old men had recovered some hidden treasure or whether they were ex-convicts returning to the spot where they had buried stolen treasures years ago are two of the most dominant theories.

Last Friday morning the mysterious pair were seen in the woods just back of Bachman street on the Leibel property. They walked over the ground mysteriously and in the afternoon were seen taking measurements. Finally they arrived at a spot where they seemed to be satisfied and left. The following morning curious people who had seen the tramps the previous day went into the woods and were startled to find a freshly dug ditch at the bottom of which was the imprint of a jar in the damp clay. Patrolman John Hession began investigating and went as far as to measure the hole, which was 3 feet in width, 7 feet long and 6 feet deep.

The imprint of the jar was 8 inches in circumference. The spot where the jar was buried is exactly half way between two elm trees.

It is thought that the two tramps returned to the woods last Friday night and began digging about 9 o'clock, completing the ditch about midnight and then leaving. The property on which the jar was buried is owned by Sam Leibel. Both men were strangers and their visit there has set that section of the city talking.

You are not going to overlook your city taxes and pay the penalty are you? Better go at once and see after this; the time is growing short.

ANOTHER WITNESS IN KELLNER CASE

ORGANIST WAS AT CHURCH 30 MINUTES AFTER SERVICES.

Indictment Brought in Against Wendling—He Is Probably Located in Texas.

DETECTIVE GOES TO TEXAS.

Louisville, Ky., June 21.—Miss Angela Perry, the organist of St. John's church, Clay and Walnut, stated that she was at St. John's church on the morning of December 8, the day Alma Kellner disappeared, and that she remained practically 30 minutes after the mass was over.

Miss Perry says that there was no one in the church when she left.

She says she is positive she was the last person to leave the church.

Miss Perry said that she played the usual music service on the morning of December 8. She said she is positive of the date because it was the feast of the Immaculate Conception.

"After the congregation left the church I remained practicing for about 20 minutes, as I sometimes do, I left by the front door. When I went out there was no one in the church. I did not see Wendling, the janitor, about the place, and did not notice a child answering the description of Alma Kellner. I am positive I was the last person to leave the church that morning."

Miss Perry says she did not see or hear anything out of the ordinary during the morning.

It has been the belief that the last person at the church on the morning of December 8 was Mrs. Rosa Stauble, of 923 Marshall street. The search of Mr. Frank Fehr to determine whether or not Alma Kellner reached the church had produced four witnesses who stated that they were the last persons in the church with the exception of a child who resembled Alma Kellner.

None of these witnesses made statements until after the finding of the body. Mrs. John Valla of 100 East Green street, said that she saw a child who answered Alma Kellner's description enter the church and go to the altar. She saw Joe Wendling, the janitor, come in and look at the child curiously.

Mrs. Lizzie Dolle said she saw this same child, but that after she left the church she saw the child standing on the corner, apparently looking for someone down Walnut street.

Mrs. Anna Grable, of Ash and Hoertz streets, said that she was in the church and saw the child kneeling at the altar. She saw the janitor come in from the sacristy and look at the child and a moment later either the janitor or another man came in from the back of the church and looked at the child. Mrs. Grable said she was so disturbed by the sight of these men looking at the child that she went back after leaving the church and looked through the doors. She saw the child still kneeling at the altar and went away, thinking she was safe.

Mrs. Anna Grable said a woman in black who occupied the pew with her, was in the church when she left. This proved to be Mrs. Rosa Stauble, of 923 Marshall street, who said that she was the last person to leave the church except the child, who was still at the altar when she left.

None of these witnesses mentioned the organist was still there.

AN END TO SKIN TROUBLES.

Action of Poslam Is Rapid—Easy to Prove What It Will Do.

"To think," says Mr. L. J. Cooper, North Haven, Conn., "that I have been trying everything (to cure eczema) for fifteen years, and now poslam has done it. The first application stopped all the itching."

When a remedy is available like poslam, which in all skin troubles stops itching and accomplishes cures so rapidly and readily, there is really no reason why such afflictions should be allowed to go unchecked, particularly as no one is asked to purchase poslam without first obtaining and trying one of our free trial packages. This will be sent by mail to any one who will write to the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West 25th street, New York City.

While primarily intended for the treatment of eczema, acne, tetter, barbers' and all other forms of itch, etc., poslam promptly cures all the lesser skin afflictions, such as pimples, blotches, fever blisters, red noses, inflamed skin, rash, herpes, sunburn, clears the complexion and keeps the skin in healthy condition.

A special 50-cent package of poslam is prepared for minor uses, and this, as well as the regular two-dollar jar, is for sale by all druggists, particularly Gilbert's drug store and R. W. Walker & Co.

Joseph Wendling, the missing janitor, charging him with the wilful murder of Alma Kellner, whose body was found buried in the cellar of St. John's school house.

The indictment sets forth that the murder was committed in a manner not known to the jury. It charges that Joseph Wendling did "make assault in some way and manner, and by some means, instruments and weapons to the grand jurors unknown," and did with malice aforethought kill Alma Kellner.

Carney Goes to Texas.
Chief of Detectives Carney has gone to Texas to look at a suspect under surveillance there who resembles Wendling.

Before Chief Carney left he provided himself with a requisition from the governor of Kentucky on the governor of Texas for Joseph Wendling. If the suspect proves to be Wendling the requisition can be put into use at once.

Know Nothing of Wendling.

Houston, Tex., June 21.—If Joseph Wendling is in jail in Texas, no advices of that fact have been received in this city up to a late hour today. Austin advises that no requisition had been received by Governor Campbell, and if Wendling is in a Texas jail, the fact is not known at the capitol. Sheriff Anderson, of Harris county, a few days ago believed he had located Wendling and communicated with the Kentucky authorities to that effect. Today the sheriff strenuously denies having Wendling in custody or any knowledge of his arrest.

EDITOR ROOSEVELT BEGINS HIS WORK

HAS OWN IDEAS OF DISPOSITION OF FORMER PRESIDENTS.

New York, June 21.—Roosevelt began today the life he had chosen for himself as a private citizen. He has his own ideas of what the country shall do with its ex-president, and, after a single day of rest, took up his work today as contributing editor to the Outlook. Not even the fact that his son was to be married this afternoon detained him from his desk.

The dispatch boat Dolphin brought him to New York early from Oyster Bay. He came as the guest of Secretary of the Navy Mayer. He went direct to his office and immediately plunged into a mountain of correspondence. Two hours later he appeared on the street and was recognized by crowds before he walked half a block, and was followed by a throng that blocked the sidewalk.

The sun was beating down fiercely, making top hat unendurable. The colonel plunged for the hatters at a speed that made the crowd behind him run to keep up. As he passed the offices of the publishing house that will bring out his forthcoming book on his hunting trip, he spied a tall portrait of himself, framed in red, white and blue. "That's dandy, isn't it?" was his comment. It took the colonel but two minutes to buy a wide brimmed straw hat with a black band. Then he footed it at the same amazing speed to his office again.

On the entrance door appears the legend, in gilt letters, "Office of Theodore Roosevelt." The rooms are furnished magnificently. The suite comprises a room for Roosevelt's secondary room, a waiting room and Roosevelt's own room. The furniture is of mahogany, and the desk is a reproduction of George Washington's desk at Mount Vernon. A rich rug covers the polished parquet of floor. Pictures of Washington, Lincoln and a copy of the Declaration of Independence, hang on the bronze burlap walls.

If it should prove that visitors are too insistent there is an auxiliary exit by which Roosevelt may escape through a hidden wall to the street.

NEW FORM OF CITY GOVERNMENT

THOROUGHLY GONE OVER AT A MASS MEETING.

Campaign in Its Favor, Committee
Selected to Secure Signers to Necessary Petition.

FOLLOW DES MOINES PLAN.

Lexington, Ky., June 21.—Definite steps were taken at the mass meeting held at the court house Monday night at 7:30 o'clock looking to the inauguration of the campaign for the proposed commission form of government in Lexington.

While no direct announcement can be made as to what plan of organization will be followed, a campaign committee was selected to begin the work of securing the requisite number of signatures to the petition asking that the proposition for the establishment of the commission form be placed on the ballots at the November election and to make other arrangements looking to the advancement of the movement.

Attorney Bailey D. Berry, who was the official representative from Lexington at the Des Moines demonstration of the commission form of government, was one of the speakers at the meeting, telling of his trip and what he found out about the new government.

Mr. Berry stated that the Des Moines plan is almost exactly what has been proposed for Lexington, and that everyone at that place endorses it. Des Moines was one of the first cities to put the new plan in operation, and there, he says, it is a complete success.

Mr. Berry said that while in Des Moines he made a canvass, as a disinterested person, to find out how the new plan was liked, and that he did not find anyone in the city who did not say he was in favor of it.

The paving law at Des Moines, Mr. Berry says, is exactly the same as the Allen law with the exception that the Des Moines law is on the seven-year plan and the Allen law on the ten-year plan.

Under the Des Moines law the property owners pay for reconstruction and new work. The cost of the improvement is not allowed to exceed twenty-five per cent of the value of the property. The paving there, Mr. Berry says, is principally of wooden block and asphalt.

The Conservation of Nature's Resources

Applies as well to our physical state as to material things. C. J. Budlong, Washington, R. I., realized his condition, and took warning before it was too late. He says: "I suffered severely from kidney trouble, the disease being hereditary in our family. I have taken four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy, and now consider myself thoroughly cured. This should be a warning to all not to neglect taking Foley's Kidney Remedy until it is too late."—Gilbert's Drug Store.

ALASKA APPOINTMENTS LEAD TO DISAGREEMENTS.

Washington, June 21.—Conflicting reports were submitted to the senate judiciary committee today by each member of the sub-committee appointed to investigate the affairs in Alaska.

Taft sent to the senate the nomination of John Rustgard, district attorney, and H. K. Faulkner, for marshal of Alaska, to relieve Boyce and Sutherland. Chairman Nelson favored Taft appointees, but Borah and Overman were against them but disagreeing in their views.

THE APPOINTMENTS ARE RATIFIED

MAYOR SMITH CHOOSES MEMBERS OF MANY BOARDS.

The Councilmen and Aldermen Transact a Great Deal of Routine Business.

NEW MEMBER SWORN IN.

Both boards of the general council were in session last night at the city hall. Practically no business of importance was before the members, but several hours were spent in the session. The aldermen unanimously ratified the appointment of Mayor James P. Smith to the city boards, the appointments are:

Board of Public Works—R. Rudy, L. E. Koch and F. E. Lack, two years each, from February 4, 1910.

Police and Fire Commissioner—A. S. Thompson for a full term of four years, beginning July 10, 1910.

Park Commissioner—H. C. Rhodes for a full term of five years, beginning May 7, 1910.

Carnegie Library board—E. W. Bagby, for a full term of four years beginning December 10, 1910. Geo. C. Wallace for a full term of four years, beginning December 10, 1910. Samuel W. Dodds from date of expiration, December 10, 1912. Charles Weller for a full term of four years beginning December 10, 1909.

Auditor—Alexander Kirkland for a full term of five years, beginning July 1, 1910.

Councilman Sixth Ward—R. S. Barnett to fill out the unexpired term of former Councilman W. L. Bower.

The Aldermen.

For the purpose of making Veiser avenue between Ashbrook and Hays avenues of a uniform width, the question of purchasing additional property was referred to the street committee to secure options. The avenue is two blocks long, and for one block the street is narrow, and it is the desire of the property owners it be made uniform in width. In order to widen the street, it will be necessary to purchase property from Dr. Lillard Sanders and Mrs. George Brame. The demands of the property owners were considered a little high, but the street committee was given the power to close options or bring condemnation proceedings, if necessary to secure it at a reasonable price.

INDIGESTION GOES.

W. J. Gilbert Sells Best Prescription on Earth on the Money Back Plan.

Almost everybody knows that sick headache, nervousness and dizziness are caused by a disordered stomach. Upset stomach and indigestion happen just because the food you eat does not digest—but lies in the stomach and ferments or turns sour. You can stop fermentation and stomach distress in five minutes by using Mi-o-na stomach tablets, a prescription that has done more to cure indigestion and put the stomach in fine condition than all the specialists on earth.

A large 50 cent box of Mi-o-na stomach tablets is all you need to get quick and lasting relief.

Mrs. Altie Elson, of 93 Dun Road, Battle Creek, Mich., used MI-O-NA and within two months was in as good health as ever, and has a good strong stomach and eats anything she likes; she attributes her present good health to the use of MI-O-NA.

If you have heartburn, belching of gas, heaviness or any stomach trouble, no matter how chronic, try MI-o-na stomach tablets on money back plan. Sold by druggists everywhere and by W. J. Gilbert, who guarantees them.

kins creek. It is a section that was to be included in the drainage of the west end of the city and county, which was discussed last year. The residents complained that the stagnant water was unhealthful and a breeding place for diseases. They asked that the ditch be closed as it is deep and dangerous. It was requested that the city place a tile pipe line that the water might be drained away. City Engineer Washington was present, and stated that any pipe under 36 inches in diameter would be worthless. The ground is flat and the pipe would drain a large area, and a small tile would be almost useless. For the purpose of securing a line on the cost it was referred to the board of public works and City Engineer L. A. Washington to secure an estimate.

The printing of the book of ordinances brought up considerable discussion. The recommendation of the printing committee that the contract for the printing of the book at 92 cents a page was adopted by the aldermen. The book will contain all of the city ordinances in force. The work of compiling the book has been underway for over a year. It was decided to incorporate a short history of the city in the book, and the bid of Col. Henry Thompson to write a history for $50 was accepted. The history will be a brief sketch of the city, including all of the important events in the city's history. The enrollment committee was empowered to employ a person as proof reader for the ordinance book.

The report of the finance committee was received and filed.

A motion from the council that W. W. Houser be refunded $91, paid on a lot in Oak Grove cemetery, was referred to the cemetery committee. A few minutes later, after a meeting of the committee, it was recommended that the refund be made, and the aldermen concurred in the recommendation. Mr. Houser purchased a lot in Oak Grove cemetery, and the cash price was paid. Later he learned that the lot could be purchased at the payment plan, and he was permitted to withdraw the money, and pay for it on the installments.

Deeds were granted to W. W. Houser and Bernhard Hise to lots in Oak Grove cemetery.

A complaint from John Dicke that property belonging to the Evansville Brewery company had been assessed to him was referred to the board of supervisors.

A request from property owners on Clay street between Twelfth and Fourteenth streets that the water company be required to extend its city mains was granted.

The question of purchasing the Rieke farm for use as a city cemetery was referred to the cemetery and finance committees.

A motion from the council that Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Sixteenth streets between Jefferson and Trimble streets, and Monroe street from Twelfth street to Fountain avenue; Madison street from Eleventh street to Fountain avenue, and Harrison street from Eighth street to Fountain avenue be included in the improvements this year was received and filed.

When the aldermen adjourned it was discovered that the councilmen had violated the rule of sending notice to the upper board that they were ready to adjourn. As a result some important business will have to remain over until the next meeting. The clerk of the aldermen was requested to send a notice to the council, stating that notice of adjournment must be given.

A request of Mary Overton that her property on Ohio street was not worth the cost of improving with sidewalks was referred to the finance committee.

Numerous residents on South Tenth street asked that the name of the street be changed to Murrell boulevard when the street is platted like the block between Broadway and Kentucky avenue. Most of the residents appreciate the effort of the board of park commissioners to make the street beautiful, and desire that the boulevard when completed shall be named for Dr. D. G. Murrell, president of the board. The request was received and filed.

The minutes were read, approved and signed.

The entire board was present last night. Those present were: Aldermen Hantman, Farley, Hank, Lackey, Ochsenschlaeger, Potter, Stewart and Van Meter.

The Council.

The resignation of Councilman W. L. Bower, of the Sixth ward, was received and filed. He recently moved from this district, relinquishing his duties in the council. He is succeeded by Mr. R. L. Barnett, who was sworn in last night by City Clerk Maurice McIntyre and occupied his seat.

On motion of Alderman Stewart, the finance committee was authorized to purchase cuts of the new central fire station and the city hall for insertion in the new city directory.

An ordinance was ordered for the grading and graveling of Fourteenth street from Madison to Clay streets. The street committee and city engineer were directed to get options on property at the west side of Veiser avenue with the view of widening that avenue from Hayes to Ashbrook avenue.

The fire committee was ordered to bring in a building ordinance. The following accounts were allowed:

Half month's payroll, street department	$312.30
Half month's payroll for sewers	120.00
Half month's payroll for engineer	202.00
Engineer's estimate culverts	467.00
Total	$1,101.30
Half month's payroll fire department	$1,070.25
Half month's payroll police department	999.57
Half month's payroll police patrol	65.00
Half month's payroll police jailor and deputy	100.00
Half month's payroll cow police	37.50
Total	$1,202.07
Half month's payroll light plant	$145.00
Half month's payroll Oak Grove	118.85
Half month's payroll Riverside hospital	119.70
Half month's payroll sanitary	60.00
License revenue	70.00
City scales	30.00
Water rentals from April 1 to June 30, 1910	2,991.30
Total	$6,908.47

Mrs. Virgie Greer asked for a refund of $11.07 on her property. Refused to board of supervisors. A petition was received from property owners along South Tenth street, asking that the name of that street be changed to the name of Murrell boulevard, in honor of Dr. D. G. Murrell, president of the board of park commissioners. Received and filed.

Bernard Hites was granted a deed to a lot in Oak Grove cemetery.

Wheeler W. Houser was granted a deed to a lot in Oak Grove cemetery.

W. W. Houser was ordered refunded $91 less the amount he has to pay on a lot in Oak Grove cemetery, provided he appears before the city clerk and signs necessary papers.

The council ratified the action of the printing committee in awarding the contract for the printing of the revised city ordinances, charter and history to the B. J. Billings company. Their bid was 92 cents per page for 1,096 pages, 94 cents for

The street committee sent in a recommendation of streets to be improved on the north side with concrete sidewalks. This was the formal report.

The finance committee was authorized to close a contract with Col. Henry Thompson for $50 to write a history of Paducah for insertion in the book of revised ordinances.

The cemetery committee recommended the purchase of the Rieke farm, adjoining Oak Grove cemetery, and a motion was brought in ordering that committee and the finance committee to investigate.

Residents on Clay street from Fourteenth to Fifteenth streets petitioned for the extension of water mains. Referred to the Water company.

City Solicitor James Campbell was asked to investigate a matter and report back. It was a question of the payment of a city license by Contractor Jones, who has been hauling gravel for the city under the solicitation of Contractor Richard Bell, who was unable to fulfill his contract. Mr. Jones received his money each month, but had not taken out a city license. Last month $50, plus 10 per cent penalty, was held out of his money for a city license and now Mr. Jones says he does not think it is just to make him pay for a license when he was doing the work for Contractor Bell, who had the license. Both reside five miles from the city limits. Mr. Jones claims he is not a gravel contractor, but has a pit and several teams. He was represented by Attorney Thomas Hazell. City Treasurer Walters took issue with him but the city solicitor refused to speak until he confers with Contractor Bell.

All members were present last night except Councilman Ollie P. Leigh. Those present were: Councilmen Foreman, Duval, Budde, Barnett, Mayer, McCarthy, Wilson, Horton, Hannin, Lally and Kreutzer.
